Deosai Plains

At an elevation of 4,114 meters, Deosai Plains are one of the largest high-altitude alpine plains in the world. The plains are covered with lush greenery and clear blue water streams and are only accessible during the summer season.

"And the earth He has established for all living creatures." (Surah Rahman 55:10)

We share the Earth with many creations of Allah ( ) and it is our duty to protect the interests of all species. In Deosai, give the animals the space they need by not luring, calling to or feeding them and avoid littering the space.
