

Access Airport Lounges across the Middle East with MasterCard

Present your Titanium MasterCard* and enjoy privileged access to the following airport lounges:

Egypt:

Cairo International Airport, VIP Lounges at Terminal 1 and 3**

**The Lounge is located in the Departure hall, 3rd Floor, Finger E, after the Immigration Counters

Jordan:

Queen Alia International Airport Amman, Crown Lounge

Kuwait:

Kuwait International Airport, Pearl Lounge

Saudi Arabia:

Dammam International Airport, First Class Lounge (Foreign Airlines)

Jeddah International Airport, First Class Lounge (Foreign Airline - North Terminal)

Riyadh International Airport, 'Premier Lounge' in Terminal 1 (Foreign Airlines)

UAE:

Dubai International Airport, Marhaba Lounges at Terminal 1, 2, 3 (Concourse A and B) and Terminal 4 at the Dubai World Central **Accepted Cards: Titanium, Platinum, World and World Elite MasterCard Credit and Debit MasterCard card.

Please note the recent changes to the MasterCard Airport Lounge program pertaining to the discounted rates applicable for child access in to the lounges:

Cairo, Egypt - Free child access

Dubai, UAE - AED 60 per child

Kuwait - 50% discount per child

Amman, Jordan - JD 20 per child

Riyadh, Saudi Arabia - No discount available

Jeddah, Saudi Arabia - No discount available

Dammam, Saudi Arabia - No discount available

Terms & Conditions:

Cairo International Airport

Complimentary access to the First Class Lounge at Terminal 1 and Exclusive Services Lounge at Terminal 3 of Cairo International Airport, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.

Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:

Titanium MasterCard

MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.

The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:

The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.

The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.

The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Dammam: First Class Lounge in the international terminal

Complimentary access to the First Class Lounges of Saudi International Airports, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.

Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:

Titanium MasterCard

MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.

The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:

The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.

The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.

The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Dubai International Airport Marhaba Lounges (Terminal 1, 2, 3 and 4)

Complimentary access to the Marhaba Lounges at Terminal 1, 2 and 3 of Dubai International Airport and Terminal in DWC -Al Maktoum International Airport, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.

Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:

Titanium MasterCard

Up to two children below between two to twelve (2 -12) years of age shall be allowed to enter the Lounge on a complimentary discounted rate of AED 60 per child basis when they are accompanied by a Premium Cardholder (as defined above) subject to payment being made through premium MasterCard card*. The Lounge Staff shall be entitled to request and require a Premium Cardholder to remove such accompanying children from a Lounge in the event that the Lounge Staff is of the opinion that the children are noisy, unruly, or a nuisance to other Lounge users.

MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.

The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:

The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.

The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.

The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Jeddah: First Class Lounge in the international terminal

- Complimentary access to the First Class Lounges of Saudi International Airports, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.
- Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:
  1. Titanium MasterCard
- MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.
- The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:
  - The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.
  - The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.
  - The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Kuwait: Pearl Lounge

- Complimentary access to the Pearl Lounge at Kuwait International Airport, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.
- Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:
  1. Titanium MasterCard
- Up to two children below twelve (12) years of age shall be allowed to enter the Lounge on a complimentary 50% discounted rate basis when they are accompanied by a Premium Cardholder (as defined above) subject to payment being made through premium MasterCard card*. The Lounge Staff shall be entitled to request and require a Premium Cardholder to remove such accompanying children from a Lounge in the event that the Lounge Staff is of the opinion that the children are noisy, unruly, or a nuisance to other Lounge users.
- MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.
- The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:
  - The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.
  - The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.
  - The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Riyadh: First Class Lounge in the international terminal

- Complimentary access to the First Class Lounges of Saudi International Airports, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.
- Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:
  1. Titanium MasterCard
- MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.
- The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:
  - The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.
  - The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.
  - The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.

Amman: Crown Lounge, Queen Alia International Airport

- Complimentary access to the Crown Lounge of Queen Alia International Airports, subject to the production of a valid Card and flight boarding pass by the Premium Cardholder (as defined below), at the point of entry of the Lounge which would not otherwise entitle the passenger entry to the Lounge.
- Lounge usage to be provided to MasterCard cardholders who have cards issued in the Middle East and North Africa and identified as holders of:
  - Titanium MasterCard
- Complimentary access to the Lounge granted to the Cardholder three (3) hours prior to the Cardholder's scheduled flight departure time.
- Up to two children below twelve (12) years of age shall be allowed to enter the Lounge on a complimentary discounted rate of JD 20 per child basis when they are accompanied by a Premium Cardholder (as defined above) subject to payment being made through premium MasterCard card*. The Lounge Staff shall be entitled to request and require a Premium Cardholder to remove such accompanying children from a Lounge in the event that the Lounge Staff is of the opinion that the children are noisy, unruly, or a nuisance to other Lounge users.
- MasterCard holders will be requested to present their cards and flight boarding passes before entry is granted to the lounge. There will be no charge for the lounge service and a receipt acknowledging their complimentary access will be provided to the cardholder.
- The Lounge Operator shall be entitled to refuse entry to lounge to any MasterCard Card holder or guests if:
  - The member or guest is not considered sober or orderly enough to be allowed to enter and is likely to disturb other users comfort and enjoyment of the lounge.
  - The MasterCard Card has expired, or the presenter is not a valid Card member. The identity of the card member may be checked against the boarding card.
  - The card member refuses to show the MasterCard Card or if the Card is not issued from an authorized MasterCard affiliated bank.