Hazrat Adam (عليه السلام) - The detailed story of the creation of the first human beings Hazrat Adam (عليه السلام) and Bibi Hawwa (عليها السلام); refusal of Iblees (Satan) to comply with Allah's (سبحانه) order to prostrate before Adam (عليه السلام); subsequent banishment of Adam (عليه السلام) and Hawwa (عليها السلام) from Paradise to earth is mentioned in an eloquent manner in the Holy Quran. It is said that Adam (عليه السلام) descended on a mountain in Sri Lanka which is now called Adam's Peak. It is also narrated in Al-Bidayab Wan-nibaya that Adam (عليه السلام) died at the age of 1000 years.

Hazrat Nooh عليه السلام - There is no consensus amongst the scholars as to how long it passed after the death of Hazrat Adam عليه السلام before Hazrat Nooh عليه السلام was born. However, it is certain that the advent of Nooh عليه السلام was after people started worshipping various gods. He preached the Message of Allah ﷻ for nine hundred and fifty years to a world plunged in depravity and sin but his people refused to accept his message. This led him to build an Ark on Allah's ﷻ command which saved him and the believers while all the non-believers perished in a storm sent as a wrath of Allah ﷻ.

Hazrat Ibrahim عليه السلام, also called Abul Anbia (father of the Prophets), was born in southern Iraq during the reign of the tyrant Nimrod. When he debated with Nimrod about there being only one Allah ﷻ, Ibrahim عليه السلام was thrown in fire. Allah ﷻ saved him by commanding: "O fire, be cold and safe for Ibrahim" (Surah Al-Anbiya, verse 69). He migrated to Syria from Iraq. All the Prophets after Ibrahim عليه السلام including Hazrat Muhammad ﷺ were from his progeny. He died in Palestine at the age of 200 years and was buried in the city of Hebron. Allah ﷻ has praised Ibrahim عليه السلام in the following words: "Surely, Ibrahim is forbearing, very penitent, ever-turning to Allah." (Surah Hud عليه السلام, verse 75)

Hazrat Ismail ؑ, also called Adh-Dhabeeh (the sacrificed one), was the son of Hazrat Ibrahim ؑ. When Ibrahim ؑ told Ismail ؑ of a dream in which he was slaughtering him and asked about his opinion, Ismail ؑ answered "O my dear father, do what you have been ordered to do. You will find me, insha'allah, (if Allah wills) one of those who endure patiently" (Sūrah Al-Saffāt, verse 102). In commemoration of this act, to this date muslims observe the day of Eid-ul-Adha. Ismail ؑ built the Ka'bah with his father as commanded by Allah ﷻ. He died in Makkah and was buried there. Hazrat Muhammad ﷺ was the only prophet who is from the offspring of Ismail ؑ.

Dead Sea

Hazrat Lut ؑ - He was the nephew of Hazrat Ibrahim ؑ. Allah ﷻ sent him to the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, which is down south of the Dead Sea, to instruct them to refrain from their sinful way of life. His wife also did not follow the true faith and was destroyed along with the non-believers. Allah ﷻ states "So, when Our command came to pass, We turned their habitations upside down, and rained on it stones of hard clay, one over another" (Sūrah Hūd 96, verse 82). Idiomatically this expression though signifies turning upside down, it may be, at the same time, an allusion to the geographic fact that the area around the Dead Sea has become the lowest part of the world and that no part of the world is lower from sea-level than this part. To this date, no vegetation grows in the area and no fish can survive in the Dead Sea.

Hazrat Yaqoob Ibn Ishaq ؑ was the grandson of Hazrat Ibrahim ؑ. He resided along with his twelve sons in Palestine. For forty years he parted away from his beloved son Hazrat Yusuf ؑ but after their reunion in Egypt, he lived with Yusuf ؑ for seventeen years before his demise. As per his instructions, his body was transported to Palestine where he is said to be buried near the graves of his father and grandfather in a cave under the Ibrahim Mosque, which is located in the city of Hebron (Al-Khalil).

Hazrat Yusuf عليه السلام - He was the son of Hazrat Yaqoob عليه السلام and resided in Palestine with his father. After his jealous brothers threw him into a well, a passing caravan saved and brought him to Egypt where he was sold to the minister of finance (also known as 'Azeez') of those times. Yusuf عليه السلام was imprisoned due to a false accusation by the wife of Azeez, who was fascinated by his masculine beauty. After some years in prison, when his innocence was proven, he was appointed as Azeez. Thus, by the virtue of his firm faith in Allah ﷻ and his spotless character, Allah ﷻ made him prevail and triumph over all his opponents. Surah Yusuf عليه السلام in the Holy Quran narrates his story.

Hazrat Moosa (AS) - Brought up in the palace of Pharaoh Merneptah (Minfiat), he was sent by Allah (SWT) to the people of Egypt. Moosa (AS) is mentioned more times in the Quran than any other individual and his life is narrated and recounted more than that of any other prophet. Allah (SWT) bestowed upon him many miracles including his staff that could transform into a serpent and his hand that could become luminous. Allah (SWT) made his brother Hazrat Haroon (AS) a prophet on his request. Many Islamic scholars consider this as the noblest thing that any person has ever done for his brother. He had the opportunity of directly speaking to Allah (SWT) at Tur (Mount Sinai). Tawrah was the holy book revealed to Moosa (AS). Two years after the death of Haroon (AS), he died in Taib on his way to Baitul Maqdis.

Harat Dawood ﷺ - He was the ruler of Palestine. Allah ﷻ had given him both a worldly kingdom as well as prophethood. Despite being in a position of great strength and power, he was a humble person. Zaboor was the holy book revealed to him by Allah ﷻ. He was gifted with such a beautiful voice that whenever he recited the Zaboor, birds and mountains repeated his words and did tasbeeh with him in chorus. He was taught to make armor by Allah ﷻ who softened iron for him so that he did not have to heat or hammer it. Dawood ﷺ died at the age of 100 and his grave is said to be located near the Tower of Dawood, that lies in the old city of Jerusalem.*

Hazrat Sulaiman عليه السلام, son of Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام, was a ruler and a Prophet of Bani Israel. His prayer is narrated in the Holy Quran as: "O my Lord, forgive me, and bless me with a kingdom that will not be available to anyone after me. Surely, You are the Bountiful" (Sūrah Sād, verse 35). He was thus bestowed with such a mighty kingdom that he ruled not only human beings but also jinns, birds and animals. He had control over the air and also had the ability to speak to birds and animals. He inherited noble qualities from Dawood عليه السلام. Sulaiman عليه السلام died at the age of 52 while supervising Jinns for the construction of Baitul Maqdis.

Hayrat Muhammad ﷺ, last of all the Prophets, was born in Makkah in 570 AD and brought up under the supervision of his grandfather Abdul Muttalib and later by his uncle Abu Talib. Even before his becoming a Prophet he was considered to be a man of high moral values and character. At the age of forty, Allah ﷻ gave him prophethood and started revealing the Holy Quran on him. He stayed in Makkah for a decade after getting prophethood and later migrated to Madinah. He lived only twenty three years after becoming a Prophet and in this brief period, transformed the society around him and established a comprehensive code of life. His statements that are narrated by his companions are a major source of Islamic jurisprudence.
